the truck, and Mrs. Marion Mudd, 28 years old, widow of the siain man.

After performing an autopsyMonday, Dr. B. H. Swain, coroner of Arlington County, found that Mudd, whose body was found by Mrs. Mudd upon her return from the party at Good's home early Sunday morning, had met his death through murder, perpetrated by an unknown person or persons, who fractured his skull with a blunt instrument.

As the story is pieced together from the tales of various celebrants who attended the session at Good's residence, a party of men and women had gathered for an evening of dining and dancing and drinking ad in the course of which various members of the group had strolled out of the house including the Carlson woman, Mudd, and a 18-year-old girl, Margaret Scanlon, of 219 Twelfth street northeast.

Old Timer got tired of I street and cut into Twenty-second street over 50 Pennsylvania avenue, and led the chase by devious cutting of corners until he reached No. 2 fire station, in the 2100 block of M street, his stable being in the rear next door to the ifrehouse.

Here, at the end of the chase, Patroiman Griffin finally got the chance. In true Texas fashion, he grabbed the horse by his nose and lower lip and twisted his head up until he stopped. But Old Timer was home, any way. When the policeman turned him over to Uncle Tommy, who came speeding up in another automobile, Old Timer, victoria and all, sauntered into the stable. He had made his record run and history. Automobiles are not such a much! a much!

Untin Plane Lands Near Port Burwell

Wireless Confirms Arrival of Far-North Fliers on Hudson Strait.

Ottawa, Ont., July 9 (A.P.).—Official confirmation that the Chicago Tribune plane Untin Bowler had arrived at Port Burwell, on the Hudson Strait, was contained in a wireless message which reached Ottawa tonight.

The message came by way of Fort turchill, on the west coast of Hudson Bay.

"Engine of plane heard overhead at $5.40 a. m., Eastern standard time," the message read. "Plane circled overhead at 6 a. m., landed at 6:10 about 1 mile north of Port Burwell."

Louisburg, N. S., was the only one of four short wave radio stations to hear the message when it was first sent and officials here explained it was probably due to the aurora borealis. The Louisburg operator relayed the message to the Chicago Tribunte and apparently believed Ottawa had received it until he was informed to the contrary by wire tonight.

TODAY'S LITTLE STRANGER.

The country this morning welcomes a little stranger. For a year or more his Uncle Samnel has been making preparation for the happy event, and today, proudly, he presents him to A Nation whose curiosity has been whetted by months of suspense, fortified by the knowledge that the little fellow immediately will become outstandingly popular. His name is Paper Currency, and he is the offspring of the outgoing currency which was born in 1861.

It has been a large task to replace the national paper money supply. First, there was the matter of paper stock, for it was determined that a more durable and less easily damaged paper would be adopted if it could be developed. The Bureau of Standards provided that need. Then there came the matter of designing and engraving the plates, and the alteration of presses and other Bureau of Engraving machinery. That accomplished, the bureau faced the task of printing the large supply of currency that the Nation needs to conduct its financial affairs, of numbering it and storing it for seasoning. Today the final large task is begun-distributing the new currency to the public-in which the banks of the Nation are cooperating.

The new bills will be more attractive, more convenient to handle, less easy to counterfeit, and not subject to quick deterioration. Economies in their manufacture will enable the Treasury to save some $1,500,000 annually, and there will be other indirect economies resulting from their smaller size and longer life. There may be some confusion at first, with currencles of two sizes in circulation, but it will become less as the old bills are withdrawn. Today the Nation joins in an enthusiastic welcome to the little stranger, whose influence will be felt in every household in the land.

STATE AVIATION CONTROL. A new aviation code became effective in Pennsylvania last week. The State aeropautical commission will soon begin work onset of detailed regulations to govern the rapidly growing industry. The Legislature appropriated $175,000 for the commission, so that every branch of aviation may be strictly regulated.

The State will set up a licensing and inection service. Pilots who are not now licensed by the Federal Government must how the necessary qualifications or be barred from flying in Pennsylvania. A critical checkeafer may he seen in the $70,000 appropriation for emergency landing fields along the principal air routes

This enterprising step in Pennsylvania calls regulated in a considerable number of States. Interstate flying must conform to the regulations of the Department of Commerce, but the Government has no way of controlling intrastate aviation, which is most in need of control. The air transport lines, which operat in interstate commerce, are by far the safest branch of aviation. Most of the casualties in flying come from pleasure trips, student in struction and local flying. Inferior planes and inexperienced pilots are most frequently Strict regulations are designed to promote rather than hinder development of aviation. The one thing needed to make the airplane a hajor transportation agency is safety. move to reduce the hazards of flying is a stimulus to the industry as a whole.

WELFARE OF THE PHILIPPINES.

The inaugural address of Col. Dwight F. Davis on his arrival in Manila as governor general of the Philippine Islands indicates that his energies will be chiefly devoted to improvement of the economic status of the people. Col. Davis reminded the Filipinos that the determination of the political future of the islands does not come within the profince of the governor general, but that prac tical problems directly affecting the foundations upon which that political future must rest are pressing for solution.

If Col. Davis could divert the thoughts of the Filipino leaders from independence to economic development he would be performing a great service for the islands. The people and the government are hampered by lack of reve-The public revenue does not increase, and higher taxes are not considered feasible. Col. Davis pointed out the need for a steady increase in the wealth of the people for their own sake and the sake of the government. pnomic and industrial development thus m one of the corner stones of the foundaon upon which governmental policies of the hture rest," he said.

Next week the new governor general will cuss his plans and policies with the Philipsupport of Manuel Quezon, president of the Senate and ardent worker for Philippine independence, and the reception he was given indicates a favorable attitude on the part of the neonle. It is to be hoped that he will be able to carry out his plans for further development of Philippine resources.

Ever since the United States has had con trol of the Philippines there has been talk of preparing the people for independence. Preparation thus far has been of a political nature. Now, when independence is considered, economic dependence upon the United States becomes a serious obstacle. If the Filipino people are really looking forward to severing their relationship with America. Col. Davis could render them no greater service than to promote their economic independence of this country.

THE POSTAL DEFICIT.

President Hoover's conference with Post aster General Brown and the four Assistant Postmasters General has brought the full glare of publicity on the financial condition the Postoffice Department. The 1929 deficit amounts to $95,000,000 to which must be added the $42,000,000 the Department must pay the railroads, under a court ruling, for underpayments in years past. This brings the total deficit to $137,000,000, as compared with a deficit of $13,000,000 in 1924, $23,000,000 in 1925, $39,000,000 in 1926, $27,000,000 in 1927 and $32,000,000 in 1928. The current postoffice -deficit will practically eat up the entire Federal surplus. and seems likely to stand in the way of the ax reduction that President Hoover had hoped might be made.

The deficit may be explained by the necesity of making the payment to the railroads. he increases in pay to night mail clerks auhorized over President Coolidge's veto, an increase in pay for quarters of fourth-class postoffices, and a reduction in rates on several lasses of mail. These extra costs must be added to the normal deficit. Only three of the mail services of the Government are said to be profitable; namely, first class or letter mail postal savings, and the registry services. The services that operate at a loss and contribute o the deficit, are second class or newspaper and magazine mail, parcel post, rural free delivery, air-mail services, and marine-mail serv-To change the annual deficit to a profit, therefore, it would be necessary to obtain greater income from any or all of the latter services. Could this be done without sacrificing the benefits that each of the services is supposed to provide?

Newspaper and magazine mail is carried at approximately cost, upon the assumption that is a function of government to assist in the general dissemination of knowledge. Rural free delivery was established so that agricultural districts would no longer be isolated. The air-mail contracts make possible the profitable operation of air-mail lines, and the marine-mail subventions are worth many times their cost in connection with the development of the American merchant marine. Would the Government destroy any of these services? Would it, especially in view of the fact that increased postal rates during the war were found to drive away business, raise the rates in any of the classes?

The Postoffice Department costs the taxpayer a pretty penny every year, but the portion of the tax dollar that is applied to the postoffice deficit purchases more in the form of direct service and benefit than the remaining part of the dollar. The deficit should be kept as low as possible, of course, but there always will be a postoffice deficit, and there always should be, if the equivalent in good service is given to the public.

AN UNEASY ADMINISTRATION.

A British administration, possessing only minority of votes in the House of Commons and yet endeavoring to carry on the complicated governmental business of a mighty empire, is always, of necessity, in a particularly ticklish and dangerous position. A combination of its opponents on any major issue of up will also be made on airports, all of which policy could readily encompass its defeat, and will be required to hold State licenses. A although any number of such defeats would further step to make aviation in that State not, under the theory and the former practice of the British constitution, force the resignation or dismissal of the cabinet, it would require but very few of them to discredit the ministry so utterly before the country as well as in Parliament that the conduct of government business would become impossible, and nothing would be left to the prime minister and the other officers of state but to quit by submitting their resignations to the king.

The present MacDonald administration exists, therefore, only on sufferance, and this situation has already been made sufficiently plain during the course of the debate on the proposed address to the king in reply to the speech delivered from the throne in his name few days ago. Both Winston Churchill, speaking for the Conservatives, and Lloyd George, for the Liberals, wished the Labor administration success, but the former was careful to put a time limit on the abstention of his party from attacks on the laborite program, by declaring that, early in 1930, he would expect the Labor prime minister to submit a vote of confidence, in order to enable the House of Commons to review and vote upon what had been accomplished in the in-The purport of that implied threat was to check the socialistic tendencies of the Laborites, for Churchill significantly added:

The central dominating fact of this isters are content to administer, and by administering to fortify, the capitalist system of civilization on which we have grown great and on which the United States is growing greater, there is no reason why they should not enjoy, although they are not a substantial ma jority of the country, lengthy tenure of

The condition thus imposed must be partic ularly discomforting to the Labor cabinet, for its-members and their supporters were all elected as socialists and therefore as enemies to the system of capitalism. In their own ranks are extreme socialists, Clydesiders and others, who may be expected to press for the translation of platform promises into action. A few days ago at Glasgow, James Maxton, M. P., suggested that there are more than three parties in the field, and at the same meeting, A. Kirkwood, M. P., declared that the people of the west of Scotland sent every Labor member to the House of Commons as pine Legislature. He has been pledged the a pronounced socialist, that they were going there to do things and to fight, no matter who is in power, if the goods are not delivered, that a Labor government is only a means to an end, and that a Labor government is no use to them unless it is going to act in an opposite direction to any government that ever was in control before.

It is quite evident that the MacDonald administration is in for an exceedingly uncomfortable time. It runs grave risk of being crushed between the upper and the nether millstone.

INSECTS AND FARMING.

It is often assumed that the farm of the future will be a vast tract of land cultivated entirely by machinery. Many persons believe that if agriculture were commercialized, with extensive holdings operated on an efficiency basis, a large portion of the farmers' difficulies would be removed.

This viewpoint is purely economic, and fails to take other factors into consideration. Dr. Charles T. Brues, professor of economic entomology at Harvard University, calls attention to the possibility that the whole structure of American agriculture may be changed by insect pests. Insects do not appear to be a formidable foe, but science has for some time recognized them as one of the most serious menaces of civilization.

Dr. Brues has found that the increase of insect pests now preying on American crops has a direct relation to modern agricultural methods. Under natural conditions myriads of insects come into being, but because of the limited food supply mortality is extremely high. Modern agriculture provides superabundant food for insects, thus upsetting the balance of nature. Large farms devoted to single crops particularly stimulate the multiplication of pests. Dr. Brues points out that as use of the airplane and airships becomes more general insects will have better means of spreading.

In Dr. Brues' opinion the inroads of insects will probably necessitate a change in the methods of agriculture. He indicates that the change may be in the direction of diversified farming of small holdings, whereby insects can be checked. "Experience does not lead us to believe," he says, "that we will ever be able to eradicate particular insect pests." He is not optimistic over the prospects of exterminating the Mediterranean fruit fly, which is causing so much concern in Florida. In other quarters the advent of the fruit fly is regarded as the most serious menace to the well-being and prosperity of the United States since the World War.

Agriculture is undergoing a rapid evolution. While attention is being centered on business methods and cooperative marketing, the lowly insect must not be forgotten.

THE BRITISH TARJFF

T. B. WALL, In the New York Times

I have read in The Times the cabled editorial of the London Times concerning the proposed United States tariff changes and also your editorial on the same subject.

You state, "If America was none too well liked before, this new outburst indicates that we may be in danger of losing the few friends we had." It has been my good fortune in connection with my business to have traveled and spent considerable time in 32 different countries and possessions. It is my observation and experience that no national of any country, generally speaking, has a more cordial welcome or has more hospitable treatment accorded him than the American in foreign lands. Remember that the Frenchman is not particularly fond of the Englishman, nor the German of the Frenchman, nor the Englishman of the German. And this circle can be repeated without end all over Europe.

The occasion necessitating my residence in London was the fact that the products of my company, along with others of a similar nature, were shut out from Great Britain, Australia and New Zealand, not by raising the tariff but by putting them on the prohibitive Britain at all. I am informed that under their safeguarding of the home industry act more than 100 different articles manufactured in the United States and other countries have been placed on the prohibitive list since 1921. The importer could not bring them into Great Britain by paying 1,000 per cent.

Excepting food and raw materials absolutely necessary for her manufactures, there are few things not on the dutiable list of Great Britain and on some of the items the duties are excessively high.

I was told by an employe of the United States Government in London who is in a position to know that Great Britain has more different articles on the dutiable list than has the United States, and more than 100 on the prohibitive list. I can furnish a list of not less than fourteen different articles manufactured in the United States which have been put on the prohibitive list and the names of nine different American companies which have been forced to build plants in England in order to protect their markets as the result of the high tariff or the placing of their products on the prohibitive list.

REAR ADMIRAL EDWARD W. EBERLE. August 17, 1864-July 6, 1929.

By JAMES WALDO FAWCETT Quiet, O restless winds of the earth; He who has dared to defy your wrath No more will challenge your bitter mirth Or tread the storm of the broad sea path.

Quiet, O turbulent, cruel waves; He who has measured your deepest deeps, Charted your shoals for treacherous graves, Lowers his ensign and weary sleeps.

Quiet, O violent, angry guns; He who has set you behind your wall Rests in a haven beyond our call.

Quiet, O sonorous planes on high; He who has freed you and bade you soar The uttermost channels of the sky Will order your progress nevermore. Quiet, O servants of peace through strife;

He who has led you and loved you long Is granted reward of eternal life, To waken to summons of angel song. Quiet, O Nation, and quiet pray While we salute him whose work is done, God give us his like in any day When freedom has battles to be won!

Foreign Critics Who Dispurage America Through Ignorance; "Doc" Means "Dog" to a Czech Writer.

To the Editor of The Post_Sir. To of foreign countries is always a risky only by those who know conditions quite thoroughly. It may just as well be admitted that Americans have someimes sinned in this regard, but it is probably true that they have been more sinned against. Many a ecreamingly laughable and inaccurate opinion as to certain phases of American life has arousing indignation in this country; but, in the expressive, though perhaps not quite elegant language of the day, the prize boner of the century has been perpetrated by a Prague (Czechosie vakia) publication called Pritomnost (The Present), this being, according to all information, a paper making con siderable pretensions to serou

In the issue of this paper for March 21, 1929, there appeared an article en-titled "Churches in Secular Services," Mashka. The writer has wandered far afield and among other things discusses American educational institutions. In this connection he presents to the echoslovak public the following precious gem:

In America a title has no value. he man is evaluated, his character In America a title has no value. The man is evaluated, his character and work, and therefore a title may easily be obtained. The doctorate is an object of jokes and people even address doctors derisively—dog. In America there is a large number of universities and because they are not maintained by the state, and since, apart from occasional aid and bequests from individual citizens, they are dependent on the tuition of students, there is a lively competition among the smaller institutions, appearing chiefly in the fact that study and the obtaining of a doctorate is made as easy as possible. There are even schools which deliver all the material for study into the home, and thus a whole university course may be undertaken conveniently at home in a comfortable chair. Even for these who study in the more serious incomfortable chair. Even for those who study in the more serious institutions things are made quite easy. Good aportsmen are forgiven much and then there are people who will prepare for you a great dissertation for $200. The most amusing, however, are sectarian universities. They are the most important thing with them is to know how to preach and to have oratorical pep. That is more important than knowledge.

In one paragraph, was there ever a worse exhibition of ignorance coupled with arrogance and snobbishness which usually accompanies ignorance?

So, according to this learned European gentleman, possessors of doctors' are greeted in America familiarly as dogs! What of course has hapsened is that the writer, not familiar with the language, has confused the amiliar and affectionate abbreviation doc" with the name dog as an epithet! Which should be enough to dispose of the gentleman and his paper as knowing anything about the subject-matter

And a student who would present a dissertation prepared by somebody else would fare very sadly, considering that he is required to make a public defense of it! Naturally, there are in our broad land a few inferior institutions, but they are being eliminated and most of them have already gone into the discard. So has Europe her weak instituions, and the fact is that a recognized doctor's degree is more difficult of attainment in this country than in Cenral Europe. By way of a preliminary education in Central Europe all that is necessary is the gymnasfum, two vears less than a collegiate degree, as by American Then there are the language requirements existing here and of which Central Europe knows nothing! # Pan-American Union Concert Is Gala Event

Audience, 1,200 Strong, Gathers on Esplanade for Music.

By JEAN ELIOT.

THE concert of Latin-American music, presented last evening at the Pan-American Union, with a great radio audience listening was attended by some 1,200 guests, assembled on the esplanade and in the picturesque Aztec Gar-

In compliment to the two guest artists, Senorita Diana Martinez Milicua, of Mexico City, and Senorita Lolita Cabrera Gainsborg, of Bolivia, members of the Mexican Embassy staff and the Bolivian legation were present. Many others of the diplomats were guests, with an official group and such resident folk as are still in town.

The United States Army Band, but recently returned from a trip to Spain to play at the Ibero-American exposition in Seville and the international exposition at Barcelona, gave the same program which it had presented before the King and Queen of Spain at a great concert in the plaza at Madrid, attended by some 40,000 people. Among those present to hear them last evening were Mr. Thomas Campbell, some time Governor of Arizona and United States commissioner for the Beville exposition, and Mrs. Campbell. They had been among the official aponsors for the band on its trip to Spain.

This concert was the forty-sixth in

This concert was the forty-sixth in This concert was the forty-sixth in a series planned under the auspices of the Pan-American Union to familiarize the people of the United States with the music of Latin America. It was given under pleasant conditions, and, although the evening was warm, a little breeze had sprugg up to rustle among the poplar trees which surround the Aztec Carden. The strange blue light in the pergola at the end of the garden supplemented the starlight, and there was a definitely decorative note in the standard of flags of the 21 nations making up the Pan-American Union, which was brilliantly liluminated.

Mr. Adams, who has had an important part in developing this series of concerts, was in Spain for nine weeks about the time the two expositions were opening. He heard the Army Band play in Seville and in Barcelona and had a genuine thrill from the enthusiastic reception given this American organization by the Spaniards. On its trip the group specialized in Latin-American music, presenting for the first time on Spanish soil many compositions which have their roots in the folk music of Spain's daughter nations on the American contient.

New Roumanian Minister to Arrive Within Two Months.

What is in a name? Confusion, probably, when the new Minister of Roumania comes to town. For his name is Carol Davilla, the name of the present Ambassador of Chile is Carlos Davila and the extra "I" will not help much in distinguishing them.

Some months ago it was suggested that M. Davilla would succeed M. George Cretziano as Roumanian Minister at Washington, and the formal announcement of his appointment, made yesterday, was coupled with the news that Mr. Cretziano would go to Warsaw, where Mr. Davilla has been serving.

Senator Likens Men Enrolled in Camps to Minute Men of Revolution.

52 APPLICANTS REJECTED

An address by Senator David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts, featured yesterday's activities at Fort Washington, where 800 western Pennsylvania boys are undergoing a month's training in the Citizens Military Training Camp. Senator Walsh ligened the youths enrolled in the Citizens Military Training Camp to the minute men of the Revolution. He also praised Maj. Alexander M. Patch, jr., commander of the camp.

Revolution. He also praised Maj. Alexander M. Patch, jr., commander of the camp.

Camp officials announced yesterday that only $2 applicance for the camp were rejected because of the physical defects, and these only after three doctors had passed on the cases.

The majority of those turned down for military service were found to have minor aliments of the heart which they had never suspected, according to the camp medical staff, while others were refused because of poor teeth, bad eyesight, diseased tonsils or some other throat aliment. Many of the were big strapping fellows of the college athletic type.

In discussing the rejections, Maj. W. H. Lloyd, the post surgeon, and Maj. James H. Truitt, Medical Corps Reserve, of Glendale, Md., camp surgeon, agreed that many of the youths probably had been warned of the defects in achool, but had done nothing to remedy the aliments. They expressed the belief, however, that the camp examination has instilled a desire in many of the boys to have their defects remedied in time to attend camp next year.

The medical officers who conducted the examinations are: Maj. Lloyd and Capt. S. W. Reeves, Medical Corps, U. S. A., and the following members of the Reserve Corps: Maj. Truitt, Maj. Francis M. B. ## Cuban Educators Visit Washington

Pan-American Building Is Scene of Exercises; Go to New York.

Following an inspection of the United States Government machinery yesterday, 250 Cuban teachers on an American tour will go to New York today, where they will be received by Mayor James Walker.

Jose T. Baron, First Secretary of the Cuban Embassy, took them to the Pandmerican Union Building, where they were welcomed by Dr. Leo S. Rowe, director general of the union. Cuban and rector general of the union. Cuban and United States flags were displayed in the building, and brief ceremony with speeches was held in the hall of the speeches was held in the hall of the Americas.

Dr. Rene Perez Abreu, president of the board of education of Cuba, and Oscaldo Valdes de la Paz, secretary of the board, were at the head of the group. The educators left Havana July 6, visited several Florida cities before coming to Washington and intend to see Nisgara Falls and oney Island this week. They will return to Havana by steamer from New York July 20.

The teachers called at the White House after visiting the Pan-American Union Building, but President Hoover was unable to see them because of other engagements.

Engineer Says Big Events Can Be Sent to This Country From Europe Over Air; WRC May Get New Transmitter.

By ROBERT D. HEINL.

Citing the successful transmission of the king's thanksgiving service from London to Australia and the United States as an example of progress, C. W. orn, newly appointed general engineer of the National Broadcasting Company. who made his first visit to Wasnington in that capacity yesterday, declared that the day is in sight when programs will be rebroadcast around the world. Horn, who has just made a trip 'o Europe, accompanied by M. H. Aylesworth, president of the N. B. C., said that introduction to that era would be through broadcasting of special events. rather than by regular exchange of Taking the case of England, for example, he pointed out an obstacle to the exchange in the five-hour differ-ence in time. For instance, they would be interested in our sporting events, notably prize fights. If we broadcast a fight at 10 or 11 o'clock at night. as is usually done, it would be received in England between 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning, which would prove a drawback. As things stand now it is mechanically possible to rebroadcast a great European event in this country.

As for the routine programs, after the novelty wore off, there would be the question of how much the English or those of another nation might care for our programs, or we for theirs.

Difference in Control Method.

Horn said the European broadcast ing systems, as compared with ours, represented a difference between rigidly controlled government ownership there

Dutch Send Programs Afar.

Horn said that the Dutch were do-phone service between Berlin and Buenos Aires, about 5.000 miles.

When asked if his visit to Washington at this time had anything to do with the rebuilding of the transmitter of Station WRC or installing of a new one, he said it had not. Inasmuch as the transmitter here is cowned by the Radio Corporation, Horn declined to discuss that situation. It was learned, however, that both the RCA and the NBC are receptive to the idea of either reconditioning the present transmitter or intalling an entirely new outfit. Presumably the latter course will be followed, but if so it is doubtful if the new transmitter would be installed to use the present omparatively low power of 500 waits. I higher power is to be used, this light mean a new wave, and in any se special authorization for the reconditional properties.

Recent Market Favorites Turn Reactionary as Bulls Shift to New Fields.

MOTORS REACT SHARPLY

New York, July 9 (A.P.) .- Reaction ary tendencies were prevalent among recent favorites in today's stock market, but bullish operations were shift-ed to new fields, and about a score of sques were again bid up to record levels.

levels.

Firmness of call money, which held 9 per cent all day, and was on the yerge of going higher for a time, was somewhat unnerving, particularly at a time when commission houses were advising that caution should be exercised in making new commitments, as a mild reaction would not be surprising after the market's recent rapid advance.

ing after the market's recent rapid advance.

The firmness of money, however, was still regarded as temporary, resulting largely in the calling of loans by banks. To pay off their borrowings at the Federal Reserve, which were heavily increased to tide the money market over the turn of the half year. About $40,000,000 in loans were called, but when it became apparent that the rate might go higher, powerful banking interests were said to have come to the aid of the market.

Tight Money Likely to Continue.

Tight Money Likely to Continue.

Bankers state that the comparatively tight money conditions may persist for a few days, possibly-holding over the midmonth settlement period. It was pointed out that it is not unusual for the credit strain incident to the turn of the month to be felt during the second week, when checks return for collection, as was the case in May.
Time money held at 7½ per cent.

There was little in the day's news to influence the market. The statistics, on June and half year steel and automobile production had been largely discounted. A sharp upturn in building contracts let in the first week of the month was reported by F. W.
Dodge Corporation, but it was regarded as too early to tell whether this indicates any substantial improvement in this laggard industry.

Fersistence of the heat wave in New York brought forcibly to the attention of, built traders the large volume of business being enjoyed by ice cream and beverage manufacturers, and such issues as Canada Dry Ginger Ale. Coca Cola, Bordens and National Dairy Products were sent up about 2 to 4 points to record levels.

American Telephone a Leader.

American Telephone a Leader.

American Telephone became a mar-ket leader, rising 7 points to 241, a new peak, in buying based on expecta-tions of high earnings from its talking tions of high earnings from its talking motion picture patents and on the satisfactory operating income for the first five months of the year, showing a gain of about 10 per cent.

American Cau was bid up about 3 points to a new high, and American Radiator, which has been receiving increasingly strong aupport in recent sessions, was sent to a new peak in a similar gain. The decline in building is said to have affected this company but little, owing to its growing foreign-business.

Columbian Carbon, Cutler Hammer, Lackawanna, United States Tobacco, Montgomery Ward and American Machine & Foundry made, wide gains, the first three reaching new high ground. Utilities received renewed attention, on the theory that the recent selling movement in this group had run its course, Philadelphia Co. and Peoples Gas shooting up 16 and 20 points to new tops. Coppers received better support than for some time past, particularly Anaconda and Greene Cananea.

Bear Raid on Motors.

The market was particularly unsettled by a bear raid on the motors around midday, which was facilitated by renewed apprehensions, apparently based upon nothing tangible, of a snarp decline in production after the high rate of activity in recent months. General Motors and Chrysler were sent down about 3 points, while Auburn fell back, nearly 12.

back nearly 12.
Case Threshing lost 13 points in profit-taking on its recent violent upswing, and such important issues as U. S. Steel, Radio, General Electric, Atchison, Allied Chemical, Union Pacific and Eastman Kodak lost 2 to 4 points. Pere Marquette yielded 10 points of yesterday's 15-point rise. Cluetr Peabody dropped 6 points to a new low for the year at 52, but railied a little later. National Bellas Hess sagged a couple of points upon abandonment of the proposed merger with Interstate Department Stores.

In the commodity markets, wheat the commodity markets, wheat t 2 cents and mo Argentina, Canada and Texas. Corn was also heavy, sagging from 1 to 2 cents. Cotton, however, sold up 45 to 90-cents a bale on increased apprehen-sion of boll wevil damage.

Foreign exchanges were firm, Sterling Cables rising further to $4.85\(\frac{1}{2}\). The Japanese yen, however, fell back nearly \(\frac{1}{2}\) of a cent, losing much of the gains recorded with the more optimistic sentiment since Finance Minister Innouye took office.

CONVERTIBLES AGAIN B LEAD BOND DEALINGS

Other Issues Generally Move Little; Few Strong Spots Are Scattered.

FEDERAL LIST ADVANCES

New York, July 9 (A.P.).-The American Telephone convertible 41/2 per cent debenture was the bond market's star performer today, making a net advance of 9 points to 161 in reflection of the stock's gain. Turnover in this bond, which on January 1 can be exchanged for stock at $180 a share, approximated $3,800,000, or about onefourth of the total market volume. Other issues were mostly higher. International Telephone 4½s jumped 2½, recovering yesterday's decline, and Reading Coal & Iron 6s, which came into the limelight yesterday on substantial accumulation, showed a net gain of ½, finishing at 99½ after having sold a point higher. Railroad convertibles traded in only moderate volume, the Atchison 4½s yielding fractionally while Baltimore & Ohio 4½s and Missouri Pacific 5½s moved up nominally.

Other listed obligations found a generally narrow market, although the price trend, as reflected in the averages, was upward. Secondary rails and industrials made the best improvement. Rock Island 4s, the St. Paul issues Denver & Rio Grande 4s, St. Louis & San Francisco 4s, Virginian Railway 8s and Wabash first 5s advanced as much as a point. Chicago Great Western 4s were sold into new low ground.

First grade rails, slipping into tregularity after the gains of last week, showed an even distribution of small gains and losses. Other share privilege issues were showed an even distribution of small gains and losses.

Scattered strong spots in the rest of the list included Anglo-Chile Nitrate 7s, up 1½; Chile Copper 5s, up 3¼; Reading Coal & Iron 5s, up 4; and New England Telephone 5s, up 1.

United States Government obligations resumed their steady climb under the leadership of the Liberty 3½s, which gained about ½. Foreign bonds were firm, and without important changes, although the French Republic 7s and 7½s responded to a good demand with small gains. Foreign sugars improved on the eve of the meeting of European and Cuban producers in Amsterdam to discuss plans for curtailing output.

Action Likely to Keep Mangan and Considine Defeat Army Pair by 6-3, 6-4.

DOCLEY MITCHELL and Gwynn-King sprang the big surprise in yesterday's play of the District net tournament on the Edgemoor Courts by defeating last year's doubles champions. Hal Fowler and Maurice O'Neili, in two straight sets by the same scores, 6—3 and 6—3. By virtue of their victory Mitchell and King advanced to the semifinals of the doubles. There were four other matches played and a fifth was halted by rain in the first set. This was between Robertson and Robinson against Judd and Philips, with the first-named pair leading, 3 tr 2, in games and tied, 30-all, in the sixth game. They will finish their match in today's program which has only singles matches scheduled.

Majs. Hobbs and Hills won themselves a third-round match against Dawson and Love, 6—3, 6—3, only to lose to the Naval Academy pair, Parrin and Howard, in the quarter-finals. These scores were 6—3, 6—4.

Col. Johnson and Lleut. Hedekin did the same thing, winning against Charest and Haas, in a third round match, 7—5, 3—6, 6—3, only to lose to Mangan and Considine, 8—3, 6—4, in the fourth round.

R EMARKABLE feats of the gridiron of the 1928 season recorded in the Spaiding Official Football Guide. It is published, recail many brilliant performances of local college elevens last fall. At least one of those plays perpetrated by Capital City collegians will go down in the record books for posterity.

Remember that 60-yard forward pass that Johnny Scalzi, deorgetown quarter back, zipped into the waiting palms of John Tomaini in the Georgetown-Fordham clash? Tomaini had to step but I yard to score a touchdown. That the pass was one of four of that length the pass was one of four of that length forward pass. His 25-yard dash after snaring a George Washington aerial heave was that Johnny Scalzi, deorgetown quarter back, zipped into the waiting palms of John Tomaini in the Georgetown-Fordham clash? Tomaini had to step but I yard to score a touchdown. That pass was one of four of that length the past season, creating a four way tie for honors in the "longest completed forward pass" records.

Probably more gutstanding in the memory of Hoya grid fans is the 87-yara run that Ken Provincial made to win that hectic battle in the mud over New York University. That run is one of the longest recorded under "touchdown scored from fumbles." No mention is made of the timely interference rendered by Harold Wynoop, the Georgetown center, who carried would-be New York Unkelers off the mud-ahowering heels of the Hilltop end.

ARLINGTON PARK RACE TRACK, Ill., July 9 (A.P.).—Mrs. E. Denemark's Frances Milward sprung a surprise when she won the Defender purse, a gallop of a mile and an eighth over the main course. The favorite, Clyde Van Dusen could do no better than finish second, with Dr. Freeland, from the W. J. Salmon Stable, third, and Folking, from H. T. Archbald's string, fourth. All seven entrants started.

started.
Frances Milward, under a sterling ride by Elmo Shropshire, was reserved off the early pace first 6 furlongs, then, when let down, moved up rapidly, and, in a hard drive, overtook Clyde Van Dusen, away fast, was taken into a good early lead, displayed good speed in pace making and held on to the list furlong, where he tired under punishment to take second money by 6 furiong, where he tired under punishment to take second money by 6 lengths. Dr. Freeland, breaking sideways and racing far out of it for three-quarters of a mile, then came fast entering the stretch, but could not gain on the leaders and finished third by four length. Folking, away well and closest in pursuit to the three-quarters, tired, but lasted to take the small end of the purse by six lengths.

The race was worth $1,400 to the Denemark Stable, and Frances Milward rewarded her backers at $21.58 for a $2 ticket.

CHARLEY J. S. is the X X X special sent along from Fort Erie, where the get-a-way sign is hung out. This trick was rushed off his feet last time and an improved effort may be expected. DEAR LADY has changed hands and may not be as stout a contender as when drinking out of her own "trough." FAIR OIL, they tell me, is a bit better than ordinarily rated, and is almost sure to take KITTING and HOI POLLOI into camp in the fourth.

In the closing event, the good MILARIA is to be sent to the post. Yea, bo, the wraps will be off this aft. Thistie Down, over Cleveland way, is to be thrown open today where a well-balanced card is the offering. BOCARATONE which is named in the second, is supposed to be a real good Eastern Stars Defeated in 13 Innings by 2 to 1 Score.

Prench Insect League yesterday, The feature contest of the colflection of four was between the Senjators and Eastern All-Stars, in which the former won after thirteen innings of hard-fought baseball. The final score was 2 to 1 and, oddly enough, all of the runs of the game were scored in the thirteenth, the Senators counting their winning two in the first part of the inning and the Easterns scoring their only one in the last part. In the other games, the Hess insects nosed out the Muddy Ruels, 9 to 8; the Shaptros defeated the Nehls by the same score, and the Webcos shut out the Sam Wests, 4 to 0.

Phelan's 150 Annexes 4th Place on Team by 3 Strokes.

Mrs. Haynes Wins Cup in Women's Golf Body Event.

By HENRY LITCHFIELD WEST. By HENRY LITCRFIELD WEST.

THE tie for the fourth place in the team which will represent Washington in the national public links championship tournament at St. Louis next month was won yesterday by Joseph F. Phelan, a clerk in the income tax division of the Internal Revenue Bureau, with a margin of three strokes, 78 to $1. The qualification round at Rock Creek Park last Monday, which rescited in a victory for Walter Barrett, with a card of 75—75—150, left the second place a tie between Phelan and Bradley H. Burrows, each with a total of 153.

Bradley H. Burrows, each with a total of 183.

In the play-off yesterday Phelan, with a total of 35, had a three-stroke lead on the first nine over his opponent and increased this lead to five when Burrows, on the tenth hole, drove into the woods and required seven strokes to hole out. Phelan acoring a par five. From that time until the end of the contest Phelan was hot in danger, although on the fourteenth hole he also scored a seven. On this hole, a dog-leg. Burrows had driven over the trees and

Some months later, having fought only street car conductors, hospital patients and preliminary boys, McTigue took a match with William Stribling, then known as the Georgia schoolboy, in Columbus, Ga. To assure the customers competent officiating, McTigue employed his own referee, Harry Ertle, of Jersey City.

pine tree and exclaimed "this one will will do!"
At that, Mr. Ertle quickly dropped McTigue's hand and raised Stribbling's, but McTigue looked at him so mourfully that he finally compromised by raising each boy's right hand together. That evening Michael, Ertle and Michael's manager, a Jewish boy named Joseph Jacobs, now manager of Max Schmeling, left Columbus in great haste, disguised as negroes.
Mr. Jacobs has subsequently related that his own and Michael's negro dialect may have lacked something in the way of autifenticity when they were questioned along the road by citizens carrying lengths of the ring ropes, but that it was a very sincere portrayal.

Mr. Jacobs Discharged

The progress of the light heavyweight championship has not been very picturesque. Paul Berlenbach held it for a time and Loughran has been champion more than a year himself but they both were inclined to take it rather seriously as a legitimate title and this deprived it of the comit element. The Loughran-Braddock fight therefore will be merely a prize fight between two orderly, cautious boxers, chleftl distinguished for having knocked out Thomas Heeney in training bouts before Gene Tunney knocked him out under championship conditions, and in half the time that Tunney required.

Singles Play Banned In Sectional Doubles

In Sectional Doubles
Once more the officials of the Middle Atlantic Lawn Tennis, Association have tabooed singles championship play.
Philips Lee Goldsborough, jr., president of the association, announced yesterday that no single will be played when the sectional doubles title events are played at the Baltimore Country Glub July 18.
In recent years, sirgles play has been abendoned due to the fact that all matches are decided on the three-infive basis and entrants are unable to play both singles and doubles in the short period allotted for the tourney.
When contestants were fewer and the Middle Atlantic body was in its infancy, singles play was a part of the annual tourney schedule. As the entrants increased in number it was found necessary to abandon the singles title event.

Increase League Lead Brooklya, July 9 (A.P.).—The Pirates increased their lead over the Cubs to one and one-half games by defeating the Robins, 3 to 1, in the final game of the series, here today as the Braves defeated the Cubs. The Pirates awept their three games in Flatbush.

Clise Dudley pitched shut-out ball for seven innings, but weakened in the eighth when the Buccaneers put five hits together for two runs, Lloyd Waner hit a home run in the ninth for the final Pirate score. Remy Kremer held the Robins well in check. Theonly run against him was made on a homer by Delphage Bissonette in the sixth.

Umpire Magerkurth, who removed John McGraw from the Cliant bench last week, evicted Charley Hargraves, the Pirate catcher, for protesting a called ball in the Brooklyn sixth.

Winchester. Va., July 9.—A teám of 23 men from the Cumberland, Md., Country Club yesterday afternoon lost a golf match to the Winchester Colf Club's team of 23, but low-scoring honors were carried off by M. Tenny, jr., a 17-year-old förmer caddy of Cumberland, now playing as No. 1 man for that team, when he shot a 77 over a par 70 course. Peyton Marshall, of Winchester, however, carried the match by 24 to 12, having won all but two of the matches played. Tenny and Marshall were the only 2 out of the 46 contestants to play in the 70s, but a number were able 20 get into the 80s with some pretty good golf. Marshall ran Tenny a close second with a 79. Arrangements are being made for a return match to be played at Cumberland August 3.

PLAYGROUND DOPE UPSET RECORDED

Peabody Wins Meet: Maury, Favorite, Poor Third.

PEABODY and Edmonds Play-ground athletes upset the dope bucket yesterday when they over-whelmed Maury Playground in their triangular engagement on the Peabody field. The much hersided Maury trackfield. The much heraided Maury tracksters trailed the scoring with six points, while Peabody won in a walk with 124, to 44 for Edmonds.
The surprise of the meet rested with the valiant few from Edmonds Pisyground, who were never expected to be sighted in the scoring by the Northeast track experts before the meet. A versatile little athlete named E.
Wheeler led the Edmonds band through the fray to their recognizable margin, contributing sixteen tailies en route.
Peabody showed greatest strength in the unlimited class events, in sweeping the class in everything.

Buchanan-Wallach

Teams Battle Today.

It uncovered two good high jumpers in the Glaze brothers, who jointly contributed 32 points to the Peabody total. It Glaze led the way in high scoring with 19 while his younger brother trailed Wheeler of Edmonds nt scoring, with 13.

Today the Buchanan Team opens its annual feud on the track with the Wallach Playground. For two years these playfields nave lost their engagements by narrow margins and both teams have carefully prepared for this their initial engagement of the year. Buchanan Playground will be host and the first event will be run off at 2:30 in the afternoon.

JACK DEMPSEY,

DISCLOSING startling and amazing details about the strong-arm tactics of the fight racketeers. When McGuirck started to investigate one racketeer threatened to "take him for a ride" if he didn't "lay off." In San Francisco and again in Chicago he was warned he was flirting with gangland automatics . . . But here is the amazing truth about the fight game, told in plain words and FACTS, for the first time. Read about the "proposition" made to Dempsey; about the man who bought his championship; about Eddie Shea, who fought under the muzzles of gangster's guns!

had a great deal to say about the miserly father of Walter, and much of it was uncomplimentary.

"The shrewdest old devil that ever bought land!" was his verdict. "He had an instinct for values. He started life as a working builder, and years ago he used to do his own repairs on his properties. He could handle a trowel with the best of bricklayers, and my father once told me that he had seen him slating the roofs of some small cottage property of his in the south of London."

"He left a lot of property?" asked Dick.

The partner shook chis head.

"Not he," he said emphatically. "He was too wily a bird; he knew just when values were at their highest and sold. About eighteen months before he died we sold four properties for him, the gross value of which was 800,000 pounds. I remember this distinctly, because there was a wangle about the commission. He sold another block—two office buildings in the city—through Haytors for 150,000 at the same time. He was a queer old devil and invariably insisted upon being paid in hard cash. No checks for old Joshua! I had the satisfaction of seeing him walk down Queen Victoria street with a valies containing over half a million pounds in bank notes. So far as I know, he never invested a penny."

"Probably he bought more property?"

The agent shook his head.

"No, but he was on the point of doing so. The market was rising again just before he died, and I had opened personal negotiations with him for the purchase of a big city block for 412,000 pounds."

Dick had an invitation one morning to lunch with Mr. Walter Derrick at his club. The postscript ran:

"By the way, did the fingerprint you found on the glass help you?"

He had no intention of telling Derrick's to the momentous discovery. It is not the business of the police to arouse unnecessary alarm in the bosoms of innocent citizens. He was by no means sure that Superintendent Bourke's theory was right, and his first step, mow that he had been given the case, was to discover all that was possible about the known actors in this little drama. Mr. Derrick's position was very rich man, and it was quite likely that he possessed moyvable property that would reward a burglar. $3 Class A Convertible Stock, Series A ($50 par value)

The $3 Class A Convertible Stock, Series A. ($50 par value) is preferred over the Common Stock, both as to assets and dividends; is entitled to cumulative dividends, from date of issue, when declared, at the rate of $5 per share per annum, payable quarterly on the last days of September, December, March and June: and is redeemable, in whole or in part by lot, on any quarterly dividend date on $30 days' notice, at $52.50 per share prior to January 1, 1931, and at $55 per share thereafter, plus accrued dividends in all cases.

The $3 Class A Convertible Stock, Series A, is convertible share for share at any time into the Common Stock of the Company upon the payment of $5 per share. Provision will be made for the protection of the conversion privilege in the event of the issue of additional shares of Common Stock either as stock dividends in excess of 6% per annum or, under certain conditions, at a price less than the conversion rate. If the $3 Class A Convertible Stock, Series A, is called for redemption, the conversion privilege may be exercised as above at any time up to and including the date set for redemption.

The Chase National Bank of the City of New York Baltimore Trust Company, Baltimore

The letter of Mr. A. E. Duncan, Chairman of the Board of Commercial Credit Company, copy of which may be bad on request, has been summarized by him in part as follows:

COMPANY AND BUSINESS: The Company, organized under the Laws of Delaware in June, 1912, is a pioneer in the highly specialized form of commercial banking which facilitates the distribution of various articles of merchandise sold on credit, through the purchase of receivables created thereby. Its business is very widely diversified both as to the receivables purchased and as to the articles which are financed largely on the installment payment plan, such as automobiles, time and labor saving machinery, refrigerators, etc., and also as to the many thousands of individual purchasers, most of whom owe only moderate amounts. In addition to its headquarters in Baltimore, the Company and its subsidiaries maintain offices in 173 cities in the United States and Canada with representatives in 271 other localities here and abroad. Through Kemsley, Millbourn & Co., Ltd., a large export and toreign finance business is conducted.

The Company owns all of the common shares of Commercial Credit Corporation, New York and Montreal; Commercial Credit Trust, Chicago; Commercial Credit Co., Inc., New Orleans; and 96.19% of the capital stock of Kemsley, Millbourn & Co., Ltd. (export), New York. It also own 10% of the capital stock of, and operates on a fee basis, the Aviation Credit Corporation, New York, an affiliation of the Curtiss-Wright and other aviation interests.

The Company enjoys exclusive contracts with many leading manufacturers through which it assists them in the distribution of their products by extending credit to their distributors and dealers. Among the products so financed are Chrysler, Dodge Bros., De Soto, Willys-Knight, Whippet, Stearns-Knight, Peerless, and other motor vehicles; Crosley, Edison, and FADA radios; Certainteed Products; Oil-O-Matic, May and other oil burners; Copeland and Seegar Refrigerators; Cris-Craft and other speed boats; Diesel engines, washing machines,

EARNINGS: The Company has never failed to show a profit in each of its 17 years of existence. The net income in 1928 was 13.62% on the average invested capital employed during the period. Consolidated Net Income for the 12 months ended June 30, 1929 (June estimated), adjusted to give effect to the savings of interest paid at 6% per annum, less Federal Taxes, amounting to approximately $1,036,790, resulting from the utilization of the proceeds of 258,365 shares of Common Stock issued in February, 1929, and from this issue of Class A Convertible Stock, Series A, would be equal to approximately $6,375,730, or over 2.8 times the combined annual dividend requirements on all Preferred Stocks including the entire amount of the Class A Convertible Stock, Series A, to be outstanding upon completion of present financing.

PURPOSE OF ISSUE: The proceeds of this issue will be used in the first instance to retire a like an of short term bank loans, thereby effecting a saving of interest thereon, and will later provide additional working capital and credit facilities for the expanding business of the Company.

EQUITY: Based on current quotations on the New York Stock Exchange, the Common Stock of the Company represents an indicated market equity junior to the $3 Class A Convertible Stock, Series A, of more than

The Company has agreed to apply for the listing of this stock on the New York Stock Exchange This stock is offered for delivery when, as and if issued and accepted by us and subject to the approval of counsel.

It is expected that temporary stock certificates will be available for delivery on or about July 17, 1929.

The petition for a recanvass will be filed temorrow, it is expected, as it is desired to guard against delay, in view of the fact that the newly elected council, under the law, takes office on Monday of next seek. The returns show that Walter E. Quenstedt, Mr. Chance's Republican opponent, carried the city by the small majority of 21 vetes. Ground for the proposed recount, it is stated, will be based largely upon the vote of the Fourth Ward, the colored belt, from which the Republican candidate obtained a majority of 379, that proved sufficient to carry him above Mr. Chance's combined majorities in the First, Second and Third wards. The Democrats regard it as signifities that have not been hithertok nown in the development of water and electric power. A great many new and electric power. A great many new and electric power. A great many new and electric power. Chance's combised majorities in the First, Second and Third wards.

The Democrats regard it as significant that in the Fourth Ward, where spoiled ballots are generally the rule, rather than the exception, few tickets were rejected, ascording to the returns, whereas in the other three wards approximately 80 vpts were thrown out. Mr. Chance, in his petition, it is stated, will ask for a recount net only in that ward, but a recheck in the other wards, to pass muster on the rejected ballots, believing that a revision will show that he was elected.

The city board of election supervisors is due to meet tomorrow with officials of the respective wards. It is not unlikely that the recount will be undertaken at that time.

The investigation into the puzzling series of fatalities in the Stone family started after George Stone died in convulsions on June 4. His mother was arrested on June 12. The authorities did not explain, however, why Dr. Dennis waited until yesterday to make his report on the poison thefts.

As a result of the veterinary's information, Mr. Hopkins and Sheriff Bowman made an automobile trip to Havre de Grace last night and questioned several other witnesses in the mystery.

Among those they talked to were Mrs. May Baker, Mrs. Stone's sister-inlaw, and Paul Jones, a soldier stationed at Aberdeen, who is said to have been a frequent caller at the Stone home, on Bourbon street in Havre de Grace. Jones, however, knows nothing of the case, the officers stated.'

St. Michaels Must Keep Unwanted Power Plant

St. Michaels, Md., July 9.—Although 195 votes were cast in favor of selling the 8t. Michaels electric plant and only 26 against selling, the town will not be permitted to sell. A special act of the last legislature authorized the town be sell provided over 50 per cent of the registered voters favored selling. The total number registered at 400, requiring 246 votes in Tayor of selling before the plant can be legally acid. Only 224 votes were cast today, and the proposition of selling was lost before the counting started.

The East Coast Thilitias a few months ago offered $55,000 for the electric plant and since them a group of local people was willing to pay $100,000 for it.

Three of the ballots were thrown out as defective. Polls were open from 1 to 5 p.m.
